

For the first time ever! A mass publication of the legendary
International Beatles Bootleg Newsletter:

Belmo's Beatleg News The Complete Anthology

Volume One: 1987 - 1993

This volume features the very first issues of BBN published in Anchorage, Alaska, as well as those published by L.R.E. King. Highlights include hundreds of reviews of early vinyl Beatlegs such as "Dig It", "Liverpool May 1960", "The Lost Lennon Tapes" series, and "Beatles at the BEEB". Then in 1988 with the advent of CDs, the floodgates opened and fans were treated to the likes of Swingin' Pigs' "Ultra Rare" series and "Stars of '63". "Artifacts" on the Big Music label out of Italy stunned the world. "Get Back" material was in abundance on such boots as "Songs From The Past", "Code Name Russia" and "The Real Case Has Just Begun". Solo Beatlegs thrived - especially ones featuring George Harrison ("Ohnothimagen") and Paul McCartney ("Eggs Up"). Plus all the wacky articles, photos, cartoons and jokes you would come to expect from Belmo.

Updates and new articles are included in both editions.

"I do like to hear some of the bootlegs where we are setting up."
